

Official Launch of One-Stop Site

Parenting Limerick - in conjunction with Limerick Children and Young People's Services Committee and Start Right – is pleased to announce the official Launch of the new and exciting website loveparenting.ie.

The website will be officially launched by Minister for Education and Skills Jan O'Sullivan on Friday 23rd January 2015 at 12.00pm in Thomond Park Stadium, with information stands for parents to visit and interactive activities for children. All are welcome to come along to what promises to be a lively event.

*Parenting is the most important job in the world, but it is also the most challenging.
Nobody can do it by themselves: We all need help from time to time.*

The Positive Parenting Website loveparenting.ie helps parents to find their way through the "Ages & Stages" of their child's development and offers practical advice on building strong relationships through positive interactions. The website has articles covering topics such as bullying, relationships, playing with your child, tips on avoiding and managing tantrums and supporting developmental milestones. It signposts the variety of Limerick-based and national services available to parents, as well as providing helpful tips from professionals. There are also lots of downloadable publications about parenting and links to other useful websites. After the official launch, support will be just a click away!

About Parenting Limerick

Parenting Limerick is a network of organisations that provides parenting and family support in Limerick City. It works together to provide parents with the information and support that they need so that they can be the best parents they can. The old saying rings true – happy parents make happy children.

If you would like more information on loveparenting.ie or have any suggestions or articles that you would like to see included, please contact Jeanne Ryan at jryan@paulpartnership.ie or on 061 419388.
