About Children's Books Ireland

At Children's Books Ireland, we believe that every child should have access to the joy of reading, regardless of their circumstances. Our mission is to make books central to every child's life on the island of Ireland. We work with families, teachers, libraries, publishers and communities all across the island to get books into children's hands and to inform adults who can make a big impact on their reading. We advocate for the changes Ireland needs to grow a new generation of readers, and we support artists so that they can make excellent work for children and young people. About this reading list

To mark World Refugee Day, each year UNHCR and Children's Books Ireland partner with libraries and bookshops across the country in encouraging people to buy or borrow a book about refugees. Using this specially curated book list, readers have a wide selection of stories from around the world to choose from in the form of fact, fiction, autobiography and photography. World Refugee Day is an opportunity to salute the strength and courage of refugees; the solidarity of those countries, including Ireland, who assist refugees; and the contribution refugees make to countries around the world.

PATRICIA HEGARTY illustrated by GREG ABBOTT
EVERYBODY'S WELCOME

CATERPILLAR BOOKS 2018 (HBK) 32PP £7.99 ISBN 9781848577459

Written in rhythmic rhyme, this is a warm and timely tale about opening a door to those in need, with clever peek-through holes and panoramic pages that beckon young readers inside. In this sweet forest setting with its sense of community and busy, productive animals, children will learn how important it is to extend a generous hand to those in need, whether neighbours in crisis, a friend with a problem, or a family immigrating to a new country. It's a timely, vital, and comforting story that will inspire useful conversations about caring, charity, and empathy. (Age 0–4)

CHRIS NAYLOR-BALLESTEROS
THE SUITCASE

NOSY CROW 2019 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9781788004480

The Suitcase is a simple tale with a huge idea. When a stranger arrives in a new land with his suitcase, the doubtful locals have questions. When the answers fail to satisfy, the locals break open the suitcase while the stranger sleeps. After a spell of guilt, the locals understand just what they can do to make the stranger welcome. This is a story of acceptance and understanding. (Age 0–4)

MARIE-LOUISE FITZPATRICK
OWL BAT, BAT OWL

WALKER BOOKS 2017 (BOARD) 32PP £5.99 ISBN 9781406377408

From award-winning author and illustrator, Marie-Louise Fitzpatrick, comes a stunning wordless picturebook that celebrates family, friendship and the power of togetherness. Mummy Owl and her three little owls live happily on their spacious branch. That is, until the bat family move in. And the new neighbours (the owls up-top, the bats hanging below) can't help but feel a little wary of one another. Owls just don't mix with bats and bats don't mix with owls. But babies are curious little creatures and this curiosity, and a wild, stormy night, might just bring these two families together. (Age 1–3)

JON AGEE
THE WALL IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BOOK

SCALLYWAG PRESS 2019 (HBK) 48PP £11.99 ISBN 9781912650040

The sensible knight introduces us to the wall, which protects the safe side from the unsafe side – or so it seems. Suddenly, danger begins to mount on his side and he is forced to venture to the other. He quickly realises that things aren't as bad as he thought. In fact, things are much more wonderful! A powerful book which calls into question divisions in society and introduces young readers to the danger of preconceived ideas through humorous dialogue and delightful illustrations. (Age 2–4)

ANNE BOOTH illustrated by SAM USHER
REFUGE

NOSY CROW 2016 (PBK) 32PP £7.99 ISBN 9780857637710

This is a book with timeless crossover appeal and a message that couldn't be more relevant. The Christmas story and what follows: the fleeing of Jesus, Mary and Joseph from Herod's soldiers to Egypt. A beautiful book looking at the nativity story from a slightly different perspective. Moving, poignant, relevant to our society today and stunning illustrations reminding us of the current refugee crisis and the reality of the challenges that were faced that first Christmas. Simple, beautiful and pertinent. A great way to start a conversation with children. (Age 2–5)

ZANA FRAILLON illustrated by GRAHAME BAKER-SMITH
WISP: A STORY OF HOPE

ORCHARD BOOKS 2019 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9781408350119

Idris is a child refugee, born into a world of tents and fences. He has known no other life than this. He has no memories of the world outside. Then the Wisp arrives, floating in on the evening breeze. Everyone who holds it finds their memories reawakened, their hopes of freedom reborn. But what about Idris, who has no memories? What will happen when he holds the magical Wisp? A picturebook that shows that storytelling and imagination have the power to offer hope. (Age 3–5)

BARROUX
WELCOME

EGMONT PUBLISHING 2016 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9781405280525

When Polar Bear and his friends are swept away from their icy home, they hope to find refuge in a new land. But when they are turned away from one new place after another, they start to doubt that they will ever find somewhere they will be made welcome. In this exceptional book, author-illustrator Barroux has crafted a powerful story with a twist ending about hugely important and current issues. A great opportunity for parents to discuss with children the plight of migrants and refugees, as well as global warming, in a gentle, open-ended way. (Age 3–6)

ARIANE HOFMANN-MANIYAR
ICE IN THE JUNGLE

CHILD'S PLAY 2015 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9781846437304

When Ice's mother tells her that they're going to move to an exciting new place, Ice isn't so sure. She likes her home and her friends, and the fun they have together. The journey takes forever, and their new home is very strange. Everything is different the weather, the food, the people and the language. Ice tries to make friends, but everyone seems too busy and preoccupied to care. A charming picturebook about the anxieties and hardships of moving, with a heart-warming, positive ending, emphasises the importance of welcoming newcomers from around the world with compassion and can be used as the starting point for a discussion about refugees and immigrants. (Age 3–7)

FRANCESCA SANNA
ME AND MY FEAR

FLYING EYE BOOKS 2018 (HBK) 40PP £12.99 ISBN 9781911171539

When a young girl has to travel to a new country and start at a new school, her Fear tells her to be alone and afraid. How can she hope to make friends if she doesn't understand their language? A heart-warming and relevant tale, this book shows us the importance of sharing your Fear with others – after all, everyone carries a Fear with them, even if it's small enough to fit into their pocket! (Age 3–7)

KATE MILNER
MY NAME IS NOT REFUGEE

BARRINGTON STOKES 2017 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9781911370062

A young boy discusses the journey he is about to make with his mother. They will leave their town, she explains, and it will be sad but also a little bit exciting. They will have to say goodbye to friends and loved ones, and that will be difficult. They will have to walk and walk and walk, and although they will see many new and interesting things, it will be difficult at times too. A powerful and moving exploration that draws the young reader into each stage of the journey, inviting the chance to imagine the decisions he or she would make. (Age 3–8)

MICHAEL FOREMAN
THE SEEDS OF FRIENDSHIP

WALKER BOOKS 2016 (PBK) 32PP £7.99 ISBN 9781406365900

How can Adam bring the green warmth of home to his new urban world? An inspiring fable about making friendship grow. Adam feels alone in the strange new city. He misses his old friends and the colours of his faraway home. It's fun to build snow animals with children in his new neighbourhood, but Adam's concrete surroundings still make him wish for something more. So when a teacher gives him a few seeds, it plants an idea in him an idea that could transform his grey world forever. (Age 4–7)

WENDY MEDDOUR illustrated by DANILE EGNEUS
LUBNA AND PEBBLE

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS 2020 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9780192767257

Lubna's best friend is a pebble. She found it on the beach when they arrived in the night, then she fell asleep in Daddy's salty arms. Lubna tells Pebble everything. About home. About her brothers. About the war. Pebble always listens to her stories and smiles when she feels afraid. But when a lost little boy arrives in the World of Tents, Lubna understands that he needs Pebble even more than she does. An unforgettable story that subtly addresses the refugee crisis. (Age 4–8)

NICOLA DAVIES illustrated by LAURA CARLIN
KING OF THE SKY

WALKER BOOKS 2018 (PBK) 56PP £7.99 ISBN 9781406379198

A powerful and beautifully illustrated story about migration and the meaning of home. Starting a new life in a new country, a young boy feels lost and alone until he meets an old man who keeps racing pigeons. Together they pin their hopes on a race across Europe and the special bird they believe can win it: King of the Sky. An immigrant's tale with a powerful resonance in our troubled times is illustrated by an artist who makes the world anew with every picture. (Age 4–9)

NICOLA DAVIES illustrated by REBECCA COBB
THE DAY WAR CAME

WALKER BOOKS 2019 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9781406382938

Imagine if, on an ordinary day, war came. Imagine it turned your town to rubble. Imagine going on a long and difficult journey – all alone. Imagine finding no welcome at the end of it. Then imagine a child who gives you something small but very, very precious ... This book started as a campaign to which artists contributed drawings of chairs, symbolising a seat in a classroom, education, kindness, the hope of a future. The poem became this book, movingly illustrated by Rebecca Cobb. It is a powerful aid for explaining the ongoing refugee crisis to younger readers. (Age 5–7)

PAUL FLEISCHMAN illustrated by BAGRAM IBATOULLINE
THE MATCHBOX DIARY

WALKER BOOKS 2014 (PBK) 40PP £7.99 ISBN 9781406355352

When a little girl visits her great-grandfather at his curio-filled home, she chooses an unusual object to learn about: an old cigar box. What she finds inside surprises her: a collection of matchboxes making up her great-grandfather's diary, containing objects she can hold in her hand, each one evoking a memory. Together they tell of his journey from Italy to a new country, before he could read and write. (Age 5–7)

ROSEMARY McCARNEY
WHERE WILL I LIVE?

NEW INTERNATIONALIST 2017 (HBK) 24PP £9.99 ISBN 9781780264042

This photo-book introduces the refugee crisis with powerful simplicity. With a short sentence and large image on every page, it cuts through the politics and overwhelming scale of the current forced migrations, asking questions that will resonate with young children. From the first understated line – ‘Sometimes scary things happen to good people’ – readers take their own journey to Europe from Africa, the Middle East and Asia. They join children crossing deserts and seas, waiting at borders and sleeping on streets. This book is a gift, both as a sensitive first look at forced migration and as a call to compassion for those old enough to read between its quiet, measured lines. (Non-fiction, Age 5–7)

BEN MORLEY illustrated by CARL PEARCE
THE SILENCE SEEKER

TAMARIND (PBK) 32PP £7.99 ISBN 9781848530034

When a new family moves in next door, Joe's mum explains that they are asylum seekers. Joe hears that they are silence seekers, especially as Mum adds that they need peace and quiet. When he sees a young boy from the family sitting disconsolately on the steps, Joe decides to help him find a quiet place in the noisy and chaotic city. A simple, moving story which is the perfect way to gently open discussion around the refugee crisis. (Age 5–7)

FRANCESCA SANNA
THE JOURNEY

FLYING EYE BOOKS 2017 (HBK) 48PP £12.99 ISBN 9781909263994

What is it like to have to leave everything behind and travel many miles to somewhere unfamiliar and strange? A mother and her two children set out on such a journey; one filled with fear of the unknown, but also great hope. With haunting echoes of the current refugee crisis this beautifully illustrated book explores the unimaginable decisions made as a family leave their home and everything they know to escape the turmoil and tragedy brought by war. This book will stay with you long after the last page is turned. (Age 5–7)

BRIAN BILSTON illustrated by JOSE SANABRIA
REFUGEES

PALAZZO EDITIONS 2019 (HBK) 32PP £10.99 ISBN 9781786750723

Refugees is a book of two voices. The first one sees the people fleeing from war and persecution and asks, Why here? Why my country? It is a feeling many people share. It is one of fear and suspicion. But when you read the text the opposite way, a new voice emerges. It says, Why not make them welcome? Why not share the things we have? The world is undergoing a period of mass human migration caused by war, persecution or economics. There are two sides to every debate. This story shows both. (Age 5–8)

STELLA GURNEY illustrated by PETR HORÁČEK
KASIA'S SURPRISE

WALKER BOOK 2010 (PBK) 64PP £4.99 ISBN 9781406323313

Kasia wishes that she and her mum hadn't moved to the UK, she misses Poland and all her old friends, and most of all she misses her grandparents. As the long school holidays stretch out in front of her, Kasia wonders how she'll fill them: her mum has promised to take her out for some day trips, but the rest of the time she'll be at work. Then Babcia and Dzadek arrive for a surprise visit, and Kasia is delighted! As she proudly shows her grandparents round her new town, Kasia realises that maybe she's happier here than she thought. (Age 5–8)

MARY HOFFMAN illustrated by KARIN LITTLEWOOD
THE COLOUR OF HOME

FRANCES LINCOLN CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2003 (PBK) 32PP £7.99 ISBN 9780711219915

Hassan feels out of place in a new cold, grey country. At school, he paints a picture showing his colourful Somali home, covered with the harsh colours of war from which his family has fled. He tells his teacher about their voyage from Mogadishu to Mombasa, then to the refugee camp and on to England. But gradually things change. The book reveals very powerfully the plight of refugee children who find themselves living in another culture and country. Hassan's emotional turmoil is explored, without forgetting both the love and optimism of his family and his school. (Age 5–8)

PJ LYNCH
THE BOY WHO FELL OFF THE MAYFLOWER OR JOHN HOWLAND'S GOOD FORTUNE

WALKER BOOKS 2015 (HBK) 62PP £12.99 ISBN 978140631636

Set in the 1600s and written in the first person, Lynch's latest offering weaves a compelling adventure story about emigration and colonisation. John Howland (the protagonist and historical figure) describes the misery aboard the Mayflower and the struggle against all manner of adversity as the ship and its passengers cross the Atlantic. Stunningly evocative illustrations by the author capture the mood of the story perfectly. (Age 5–8)

CERI ROBERTS illustrated by HANANE KAI
CHILDREN IN OUR WORLD: REFUGEES AND MIGRANTS

WAYLAND 2018 (PBK) 32PP £8.99 ISBN 9781526300218

This title is part of the Children in Our World picturebook series, which help children make sense of the larger issues and crises that dominate the news in a sensitive and appropriate manner. With relatable comparisons, carefully researched text and striking illustrations, children can begin to understand who refugees and migrants are, why they've left their homes, where they live and what readers can do to help those in need. Where issues aren't appropriate to describe in words, sensitive illustrations help children visualise who refugees and migrants are. Ideal for tying into Refugee Week and discussions on current affairs. (Non-fiction, Age 5–8)

SOPHIE SIERS illustrated by ANNE VILLENEUVE
DEAR MR. PRESIDENT

TEMPLAR BOOKS 2019 (PBK) 32PP £6.99 ISBN 9781787415195

Sam has to share a bedroom with his big brother and he hates it. When he hears the American president talking on TV about building a wall, he enthusiastically embraces this simple solution as his own, and begins writing to POTUS to tell him of his plans and ask for advice. Sam's correspondence remains one-sided, but his dilemma initiates some interesting conversations with his teacher and his parents about walls throughout history that have kept people in and out. (Age 5–8)

PATTI KIM illustrated by SONIA SÁNCHEZ
HERE I AM

CURIOUS FOX 2015 (PBK) 40PP £6.99 ISBN 9781782022268

How do you make a new country feel like home? An old keepsake, a new friend and a little time. Walk in one boy's shoes as he takes the first tentative steps towards discovering the joys of his new world. At the beginning of this award winning beautifully illustrated picturebook, the boy struggles with the unfamiliar. His new school makes him feel lost and alone. He finds comfort in a seed he brought from his homeland. It represents what he left behind and longs for. He clings to his seed, keeping it with him at all times. Until he loses it ... (Age 5–10)

WHEN JESSIE CAME ACROSS THE SEA

WALKER BOOKS 1999 (PBK) 40PP £7.99 ISBN 9780744569636

Jessie lives with her grandmother in a poor village in the valleys of eastern Europe. When, to everyone's surprise, young Jessie is chosen by the village rabbi to travel to America, and to leave her grandmother behind, they both feel their hearts will break. Award-winning author Amy Hest brings her sure and inspired touch to the story of our immigrant heritage as she follows Jessie across the ocean to a new life and a new love in America. An unforgettable tribute to the immigrant experience. (Age 6–9)

VARIOUS

MIGRATIONS: OPEN HEARTS, OPEN BORDERS

OTTER-BARRY BOOKS 2019 (HBK) 109PP £9.99 ISBN 9781910959800

This is a capsule collection of illustrated postcards from artists who wished to express support for migrants and refugees. The original idea was that artists would send a postcard illustrated with a bird and a few words of encouragement to a central address, thus physically creating a 'migration'. The 300+ postcards from this murmuration were then exhibited, fifty of these postcards are showcased here, reflecting welcoming sentiments and an extraordinary variety of illustration. Although there is no plot or story included here, it will spark conversations about the need for assistance, acceptance and inclusion for all. (Non-fiction, Age 7+)

BERNARD ASHLEY

NADINE DREAMS OF HOME

BARRINGTON STOKES 2014 (PBK) 64PP £5.99 ISBN 9781781123690

A touching yet serious story with an ultimately uplifting ending. Nadine doesn't like her new life. She doesn't speak the language, she can't understand what's going on, and more than anything, it's just not home. Especially since her father isn't here with them. But it just wasn't safe in Goma anymore, not with the uprising and the violence of the rebel soldiers. So Nadine tries to find something in her new life that will remind her of the happy memories of Africa. Particularly suitable for struggling, reluctant and dyslexic readers. (Age 7-9)

ARMIN GREDER

THE ISLAND

ALLEN & UNWIN CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2008 (HBK) 32PP £11.99 ISBN 9781741752663

When the people of the Island discover a man and a tattered raft on their beach, they are reluctant to take him in. He doesn't look like them. But they cannot send him back to the sea where he will surely perish. Instead, they put him aside but even that doesn't solve their problem. The Island is an astonishing and powerful picturebook about refugees, xenophobia, multiculturalism, social politics and human rights. It tackles big themes in subtle ways with a fable-like text and stunning artwork that will provoke discussion for upper primary and secondary school levels about these issues. (Age 7-10)

ANNE HOLM

I AM DAVID

EGMONT PUBLISHING 2018 (PBK) 208PP £6.99 ISBN 9781405288736

This is the remarkable story of David who escapes from the concentration camp where he has spent his entire life and flees across Europe. The sea, mountains and flowers, the colours of Italy, the taste of fruit, people laughing and smiling, all are new to David. David learns that his polite manner, his haunted eyes and his thin features are strange to other people. He must learn to fend for himself in this strange new world. An incredible story of survival against all odds and self-discovery. (Age 7-12)

SITA BRAHMACHARI illustrated BY JANE RAY
WORRY ANGELS

BARRINGTON STOKES 2017 (PBK) 80PP £5.99 ISBN 9781781126950

There have been so many changes in Amy-May's young life and she is so filled with anxiety, she can't go to school. It's just too much for her. So, Amy-May is sent to Grace's art school, instead. But Amy-May still has trouble opening up; that is, until a refugee girl from Syria with little English arrives and changes Amy-May's perspective. This tender story addresses a number of complex issues that young people deal with every day. Family separation, relocating, the refugee crisis; but mostly it deals with anxiety and stress. (Age 8–12)

CATHERINE BRUTON
NO BALLET SHOES IN SYRIA

NOSY CROW 2019 (PBK) 272PP £6.99 ISBN 9781788004503

Aya is eleven-years-old and has just arrived in Britain with her mum and baby brother, seeking asylum from war in Syria. When Aya stumbles across a local ballet class, her exceptional talent is spotted. But at the same time, her family must fight to be allowed to remain in the country and to find Aya's father – separated from the rest of the family during the journey from Syria. With beautiful, captivating writing, wonderfully authentic ballet detail, and an important message championing the rights of refugees, this is classic storytelling, filled with warmth, hope and humanity. (Age 8–12)

ONJALI Q RAÚF
THE BOY AT THE BACK OF THE CLASS

ORION BOOKS 2018 (PBK) 297PP £6.99 ISBN 9781510105010

There's an empty chair at the back of the class. Nobody pays it any attention until one day a new boy sits there. This book presents the issues around refugees – their plight, attitudes towards them, ways of helping them – through a warm, charming story about a good-hearted nine-year-old who just wants to help a friend. It doesn't shy away from the ugliness or from the horrors and losses faced by refugees, to the bigotry and racism and ignorance they face, albeit presented in a way that doesn't overwhelm a positive story about friendship and love. (Age 8–12)

CATHY CASSIDY
SAMI'S SILVER LINING

PUFFIN BOOK 2018 (PBK) 288PP £6.99 ISBN 9780241334485

Forced to flee his home in Syria for safety in England, Sami attempts to begin a new life but struggles to overcome the pain of the past. Memories of the long and dangerous journey across icy waters, armed with only his dad's old coat, a flute and the hope of a brighter future, are never far away. Can his new friends in the Lost and Found band and a blossoming romance with the girl of his dreams melt his frozen heart or is it too late to find a silver lining? (Age 9–11)

CORGI CHILDRENS 2015 (PBK) 384PP £7.99 ISBN 9780552566704

Amina's homeland has been ravaged by war, and her family is devastated. The women of the family – Amina, her two sisters and their mother – have no choice but to leave their home town, along with thousands of others, and head for a refugee camp. But there are even more challenges ahead. Violence and the other disturbing images are not dwelled on unnecessarily, but the horror of Amina's situation is clear and present. The reader finds a surprising story of family, friendship and hope. (Age 9–11)

STEVE TASANE
CHILD I

FABER & FABER 2018 (PBK) 192PP £6.99 ISBN 9780571337835

A group of undocumented children with letters for names, are living in a refugee camp, with stories to tell but no papers to prove them. They have lost their 'life books' (passports) and as such are stuck in the limbo of the camp with no way out. No parents, no adults, they have only each other. As they try to forge a new family amongst themselves. This book tells the story of five refugee children, told from the perspective of child 'I' and is filled with the simple, yet still poetic language of a young person in a tragic setting. (Non-fiction, Age 9–12)

MORRIS GLEITZMAN

ONCE

PUFFIN 2006 (PBK) 160PP £6.99 ISBN 9780141320632

Once by Morris Gleitzman is the story of a young Jewish boy. It begins with Felix escaping from the orphanage he has been living in for the past three years and setting off through Nazi-occupied Poland in search of the parents he believes to be still alive. Aimed at young readers ages nine and up, the series is surprisingly unflinching in its portrayal of the Holocaust but this is counteracted well by the naivety of the young narrator, Felix. This is the start of a series. (Age 9–13)

BEVERLY NAIDOO

THE OTHER SIDE OF TRUTH

PUFFIN BOOKS 2017 (PBK) 368PP £6.99 ISBN 9780141377353

This is the story of twelve-year-old Sade and her brother Femi who flee to Britain from Nigeria. Their father is a political journalist who refuses to stop criticising the military rulers in Nigeria. Their mother is killed and they are sent to London, with their father promising to follow. Abandoned at Victoria Station by the woman paid to bring them to England as her children, they find themselves alone in a new, often hostile, environment. The novel explores what it means to be classified as 'illegal' and the difficulties which come with being a refugee. (Age 9–13)

WHO ARE REFUGEES AND MIGRANTS? WHAT MAKES PEOPLE LEAVE THEIR HOMES? AND OTHER BIG QUESTIONS

WAYLAND 2019 (PBK) 48PP £9.99 ISBN 9780750299862

This book explores the history of refugees and migration around the world and the effects on people of never-ending war and conflict. It compares the effects on society of diversity and interculturalism with historical attempts to create a racially 'pure' culture. It takes an international perspective, and offers a range of views from people who have personal experience of migration. This book encourages readers to think for themselves about the issues involved. (Non-fiction, Age 10+)

ELE FOUNTAIN
BOY 87

PUSHKIN CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2018 (PBK) 224PP £6.99 ISBN 9781782691976

Shif is just an ordinary boy who likes chess, maths and racing his best friend home from school. But one day, soldiers with guns come to his door – and he knows that he is no longer safe. Forced to leave his mother and little sister, and embark on a dangerous journey; through imprisonment and escape, new lands and strange voices, and a perilous crossing by land and sea. He will encounter cruelty and kindness; he will become separated from the people he loves. A gripping, uplifting tale of one boy's struggle for survival. (Age 10–12)

ZARA FRAILLON
THE BONE SPARROW

ORION CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2017 (PBK) 240PP £7.99 ISBN 9781510101555

Born in a refugee camp, all Subhi knows of the world is that he's at least nineteen fence diamonds high, the nice Jackets never stay long, and at night he dreams that the sea finds its way to his tent, bringing with it unusual treasures. And one day it brings him Jimmie, she strikes up an unlikely friendship with him beyond the fence. This novel reminds us all of the importance of freedom, hope, and the power of a story to speak for anyone who's ever struggled to find a safe home. (Age 10–12)

FABIO GEDA translated by HOWARD CURTIS
IN THE SEA THERE ARE CROCODILES

TAMARIND 2015 (PBK) 224PP £7.99 ISBN 9781848531383

One night before putting him to bed, Enaiatollah's mother tells him three things: don't use drugs or weapons, don't cheat, don't steal. The next day he wakes up to find she isn't there. Ten-year-old Enaiatollah is left alone at the border of Pakistan to fend for himself. In a book that takes a true story and shapes it into a beautiful piece of fiction, Italian novelist Fabio Geda describes Enaiatollah's remarkable five-year journey from Afghanistan to Italy where he finally managed to claim political asylum aged fifteen. Enaiatollah's engaging, moving voice is brilliantly captured by Geda's subtly simple storytelling. (Age 10–12)

Reema runs to remember the life she left behind in Syria. Caylin runs to find what she's lost. Under the grey Glasgow skies, twelve-year-old refugee Reema is struggling to find her place in a new country, with a new language and without her brother. But she isn't the only one feeling lost. Her Glaswegian neighbour Caylin is lonely and lashing out. Heartfelt and full of hope, an uplifting story about the power of friendship and belonging. Inspired by her work with young asylum seekers. (Age 10–12)

ARMIN GREDER
THE MEDITERRANEAN

ALLEN & UNWIN CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2017 (HBK) 40PP £12.99 ISBN 9781760634018

With eloquent and devastating imagery, we are asked to examine our responses to the plight of refugees. How long will we remain silent witnesses? Seventeen double-page spreads visually depict scenes typical of many migrants' stories, and a couple reflect more on those who instigate or benefit from the conditions that cause migration. There will be great deal for readers of eleven to adult to interrogate and reflect on in this quietly stunning reminder that many hundreds of thousands of people have died on the Mediterranean, many crammed into small boats like the one shown here. (Age 11+)

FAR FROM HOME: REFUGEES AND MIGRANTS FLEEING WAR, PERSECUTION AND POVERTY

FRANKLIN WATTS 2019 (PBK) 64PP £9.99 ISBN 9781445155197

A sensitive and accessible account of the refugee crisis facing millions around the world. Far From Home examines the root causes of mass migrations from both a historical and current perspective. Historical sources and first-hand accounts are used to explore racism, religion, life in refugee camps and the challenges migrant and refugees face on arrival in new lands, alongside the response of host countries. It also takes a look at the difficult and dangerous journeys people make in an attempt to reach a safe haven. (Non-fiction, Age 11+)

GILLIAN CROSS
AFTER TOMORROW

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS 213 (PBK) 304PP £6.99 ISBN 9780192756268

The British economy has collapsed. Civil disobedience sets family against family as raids for the scarce food leads to violent attacks. After Matt's Dad and grandfather are killed, his Mum is determined to keep the family going by growing food and by storing all she can. Soon they are attacked as 'scadgers' for hoarding. The only solution is to flee to France where British refugees are allowed to live in camps. Based on a 'what if' premise this is a thought-provoking post-crash novel. (Age 11–14)

DAVID ALMOND
JACKDAW SUMMER

HODDER CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2013 (PBK) 240PP £6.99 ISBN 9780340881996

It seems fate leads Liam to find an abandoned baby and as a result his life becomes entwined with that of Oliver, an African boy seeking asylum and Crystal, an emotionally damaged girl. Acknowledging the connection between them, he helps them escape the authorities who would deport Oliver. Liam learns about the horrors of real war, of young lives abused and families destroyed. Friendship, loyalty and truth are explored through a cast of complex characters in this compelling story. While often tense, it ends on a note of hope. (Age 12–14)

ZARA FRALLION
THE ONES THAT DISAPPEARED

ORION CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2017 (PBK) 272PP £7.99 ISBN 9781510101586

This book centres around three children, Miran, Isa, and Esra who have been taken by ruthless gang members from refugee camps, children's homes, or the beaches after a dangerous dinghy capsizes on a crossing. Kept by a ruthless gang, three children manage to escape from slavery. But freedom isn't just waiting on the outside. Told with elements of magical realism, this is a relevant and important book about real issues in our world, and it makes those issues accessible to children in a profound and distinctly empathetic way, while offering hope. (Age 12–14)

MIRIAM HALAHMY

Just one of many 'unaccompanied children', the Calais refugee camp has a wildness, a brutality all of its own. But despite his ambitions to escape, Mico is unable to buy his way out to cross the borders. He is alone, desperate, and running out of options. But then Leila arrives and everything starts to change. She shows Mico that hope and friendship can grow in the most unusual places. (YA)

JANNE TELLER
WAR: WHAT IF IT WERE HERE?

SIMON & SCHUSTER 2016 (HBK) 64PP £5.99 ISBN 9781471161476

Imagine if war broke out – not in Iraq or Afghanistan or somewhere far, far away, but here, in our country. This book is a thought-provoking experiment: by simply turning the current crisis on its head, she reveals what it is like to flee your home country, to be exiled, and to fight for survival in a foreign country. In this illustrated short story, Europe has fallen apart and the only place at peace within reach is the Middle East. You follow a normal family as they flee to the Middle East and see what they go through as refugees, through the eyes of their fourteen-year-old son. (YA)

UNHCR
FORCED TO FLEE: REFUGEE CHILDREN DRAWING ON THEIR EXPERIENCES

FRANKLIN WATTS 2019 (HBK) 80PP £12.99 ISBN 9781445166285

Refugee children explain in their own words and pictures their thoughts, feelings and experiences about having to flee from their home countries. This title focuses on three current refugee crises in Syria, South Sudan and Central America. Aimed at young adult readers, this book gives clear and easy-to-understand background information about: how each crisis came about; why families had to flee and what life is like for them now. The children's artwork is incredibly powerful and harrowing, and vividly highlights the impact that conflict, war and atrocities has on people's lives. (Non-fiction, YA)

REFUGEE BOY

BLOOMSBURY CHILDREN'S BOOKS 2017 (PBK) 304PP £7.99 ISBN 9781408894996

This wry and poignant story of a young refugee left in London is of even more power and pertinence today than when it was first published in 2001. Life is not safe for Alem. His father is Ethiopian, his mother Eritrean. Their countries are at war, and Alem is welcome in neither place. So Alem is excited to spend a holiday in London with his father – until he wakes up to find him gone. What seems like a betrayal is in fact an act of love, but now Alem is alone in a strange country, and he must forge his own path. (YA)
