Information Leaflet for Groups and Organisations that Provide Services or Activities for Children and Young People in County Mayo

Children First Act, 2015

What do you need to do?

Find out if you are a provider of a relevant service.

To qualify as a provider of a relevant service under the act, you must employ at least one other person, whether through contract or voluntary arrangement to undertake any work or activity with children. This includes organisations who permit one or more volunteers to undertake any work or activity with children, such as sports, arts or youth organisations. (See schedule 1 of the Children First Act, 2015).

If you are a provider of a relevant Service, the act requires that the provider:

- Keep children safe from harm while they are using the service
- Carry out a risk assessment to identify whether a child or young person could be harmed while availing of the service

‘Harm’ in relation to the Children First Act, 2015 is defined as:

(a) assault, ill-treatment or neglect of the child in a manner that seriously affects or is likely to seriously affect the child’s health, development or welfare, or

(b) sexual assault

NB: The risk assessment required needs to be included in the Child Safeguarding Statement and is specific to this legislation and is not a general health and safety risk assessment.

- Develop a Child Safeguarding Statement that outlines the policies and procedures which are in place to manage the risks that have been identified
- Appoint a Relevant Person to be the first point of contact in respect of the organisation’s Child Safeguarding Statement

- Maintain a List of Mandated Persons (where relevant). Mandated Persons are certain people, many of whom are professionals, who have a legal responsibility to report child abuse to Tusla. (See schedule 2 of the Children First Act, 2015)
- Please note: Organisations and individuals working with children and young people should check schedules 1 & 2 of the Children First Act, 2015 to see if they come within the remit of the legislation. (See page 55 of the revised Children First Guidance 2017).

The guidance can be downloaded on the Tusla website: tusla.ie/children-first

Revised Children First Guidance 2017

This guidance applies to everyone who comes into contact with children. This includes family, friends, neighbours, professionals and volunteers. It outlines how to recognise child abuse and ensure that child protection concerns are reported to Tusla/and or An Garda Síochána.

The Children First Act, 2015 operates alongside the revised Children First National Guidance 2017. The obligations under the act are in addition to those outlined in the guidance. It may be necessary for organisations to update their policies and procedures to take account of the Children First National Guidance 2017, as well as the additional obligations under the Children First Act, 2015.

Key Dates	Information
11th December 2017	Mandated Persons acquired new legal obligations to report child abuse. Providers of relevant services are required to prepare a Child Safeguarding Statement and risk assessment
