Addressing the influence of the manosphere

Practical advice for parents, carers and practitioners

The ISPCC, in collaboration with Dublin City South, Dublin City North, Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown, Fingal and South Dublin CYPSC, is delighted to offer a FREE online webinar for parents, carers and practitioners, featuring guest speaker Professor Debbie Ging.

This webinar will provide an overview of the manosphere, exploring how it has evolved into a pervasive lifestyle advice industry, why it appeals to some boys and men, and the potential impact this can have on young people and society.

Key takeaways from the webinar

Participants will gain valuable insights into how to help children and young people challenge and resist harmful masculinity messaging by:

- Nurturing and protecting their capacity for empathy.
- Modelling, embracing, and encouraging diverse and inclusive expressions of masculinity and femininity.
- Listening without judgement while promoting accountability and responsibility.
- Using curiosity and open discussion to help young people become critical consumers of digital media and online content.
